FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 17.

Items.

On next Thursday a celebrated Baltimore belle, the beautiful Bessie Watson, will marry Captain Lewis, of Devonshire, England. The wedding will take place at the residence of Mrs. Watson, on Gramercy Park, New York. There are to be six bridesmaids and a corresponding number of ushers, but no groomsmen, this being in accordance with the English fashion.

The record of crime knows no abatement in New York, and the inefficiency of the police is loudly complained of. Last night, as a Madison avenue car was progressing through Broome street, a very respectable looking citizen and his son were about to get off, when a party of "roughs," who had jumped on the car a short time before, seized him and relieved him of everything valuable in his possession.

There is some humor in the following, which the Radical papers print as written by Judge Davis:

"It was April the third, and quite cool were the skies. And it may be inferred that H. G. was likewise, but he played it that day upon Adams and me. In a way I despise."

A number of photographs of Gen. R. E. Lee and his wife, endorsed by Mrs. Lee in her own handwriting as having been taken at Lexington, "his residence since the war," and some stereoscopic views of Virginia scenery, &c., are on their way to the Bazar soon to be held at Liverpool, England, where they will be sold for the benefit of Southern orphans.

Filthy, flash journals, which are ostensibly published in Chicago, but which really are issued in New York city, have of late successfully enjoyed the attention of some of the police officers, and, to the extent of their observation, have been suppressed.
